About This Game

Invaders are living inside your computer. You shouldn't let that happen! Interact with your desktop while playing, watch Youtube videos, chat with your friends and more! CPU Invaders overlaps the game itself with your computer screen.

- Score system, bosses and draggable interface;
  - Enemies with unique set of skills to destroy your CPU;
  - Original 8-bit soundtrack, produced by Frost Orb.

(Windows feature aero must be enabled or the game background will be solid black)

this game sucks. 100% completion in less than an hour. i've bought a game for 14 cents that had more gametime. the level design is OK. the music is... OK. the graphic design is... balls. it's only worth playing for putting stupid\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665in the background while you play. weirdly enough, it has gamepad support, but gamepad can only control movement as far as i can tell. there's no tutorial or instruction manual or options or any sort of menu beyond the level select. there isn't even a pause button. there isn't a pause button. this game is also stupidly easy, most levels you will beat on your first or second try. don't expect a game that you can't beat in your sleep.

also it seems a lot of people get blue screen lol
